manufacturer Mutina, Italy

The Mutina philosophy is that the wall and floor are a second skin, which embraces and designs the home's living areas and collective spaces. Mutina's collections are characterised by hand-crafted details such as the rustic Terra Nera, an exceptionally hard and pure material made of Sicilian volcanic clay, using the traditional method for hand-made terracotta, then undergoing a firing cycle at temperatures in excess of 1200 degrees Celsius. Rogerseller aspire to be the destination for unique bathroom solutions inspired by design, innovation and function.

designer Brian Steendyk

manufacturer Schiavello

Designed by Brian Steendyk, renowned for his sophisticated pieces with a sometimes subtle, sometimes unmistakable sense of fun, Cero unearths a purification of form, typical of Steendyk's designs. The modern, streamlined styling of Cero with its central void references reflects our busy 'jet age' lifestyles. A transient, sculptural element to furnish the contemporary urban environment, Cero's organic lines imbue a sense of intrigue that provoke a smile.

Made of indestructible polyethylene, Cero is suitable for internal and external environments and, with the delightful Sub-Cero range for children, Cero provides a fresh focus to any setting.

dimensions 450 H, 575 W, 420 D

material 100 percent recyclable, roto-moulded polyethylene, UV stabilised.

colours Fuchsia, Jungle, Lime, Latte (Cero only) Licorice Black, Lemon (Sub-Cero only), Olive Leaves (Cero only), Orange, Slate, Snow, Tomato Red
